

Time Out

Time Out
New York

JULY 10-14, 2014 ISSUE 2014 TIME-OUT NEW YORK
NOT FOR SALE $4.00

*douche bag
free zone*

Think the Hamptons are all popped collars and Lambos? We found the dive bars, seafood shacks, and under-the-radar beaches to prove you wrong.

New York

Drinking

Edited by Christina Izzo
food.ny@timeout.com
@christinalizzo

On our radar Sid Gold's Request Room

Sing us a song, piano man.

Snacks of the midcentury variety, including plump shrimp cocktail ($12) and radish-flecked deviled eggs ($7), round out the menu.

GOOD FOR: Grown-up theater kids. (Fittingly, the place is named after a Broadway agent.) At 9pm

BOTTOMS UP

SAT 11 NEW YORK SUPER CRAFT BEER FESTIVAL

The NYC craft beer renaissance continues its sudsy, chalice, sniff-before-you-sip domination with this waterfront festival. More than 75 local state and city brews will be available, with unlimited pours from Staten Island's Flagship Brewing Co., Hudson Valley's Naked Flock hard cider and Ommegang from Cooperstown, NY. Watermark Bar, Pier 15, 78 South St (newyorksupercraft.com). 2-5pm; $60.

SUN 12 FINE WINE NYC

Have yourself a sauvignon-fueled Sunday at this all-day vino bash, complete with a two-hour open wine bar and brunch items including sandwich sliders, shrimp over grits, and chicken and waffles. Local disc spinners, including